- Travel vouchers can be bought in bulk by businesses and providers who regularly process and pay out travel expenses.
- Vouchers are given to applicants by the business, as and when required, eradicating cash handling and the admin that comes with it.
- Vouchers are exchanged by the applicant with the driver onboard the bus for a valid ticket.
- Vouchers can be purchased for single journey, daily, weekly tickets for various zones. They allow access to all Arriva services within the relevant zone.
- Vouchers are valid for one year. Should they expire, they can be exchanged with Arriva for in date vouchers.
- Contact Mark for further information and pricing.
